BOOKMAKER JOE ULLMAN HAS BROKEN ALL "RING" RECORDS AT SARATOGA,

DOHERTY WINS FROM WHITMAN.

English Tennis Champion Takes The Match - Hitherto Unbeaten American Is Unsteady and Loses.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 26 .- Once too often the hitherto unbeaten Malcolm D. Whitman has played on the tennis courts. He was no maten for R. F. Doherty, the former champion of all England. It was the repetition of the wearing-out game which the Britons play so well, and now they have the American championship in the singles within their grasp. for it is regarded as a certainty that R. F. Doherty will beat William H. Larned to-morrow in the coming match.

The score by which the Briton gained his victory over Whitman was 6-1, 3-6, 6-4, 6-0. The final set was played at a terrific pace, but Wnitman was so weak that he was unable to make anything like a defense, and lost it without winning a

The toss was won by the Briton, who chose the service. He lost the first point by a double fault. Then Whitman lost two points on outs and was twice passed by Doherty, who took the game. Doherty took the second game by his clever place shots, which he played with great effect against Whitman's service. Both men were playing careful tenis and and not begun to extend themselves. Whitman ired to get to the net in the same way as a man would file away a mach after lighting and the score stood at 3 love on games and the score stood at 3 love on games against the American.

'YOUNG CORBETT" IS BACK TO WORK.

McGovern's Opponent Has Resumed Training at Cincinnati Suburb for Fight to Be Decided Sept. 22.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 26.-"Young Corarrived here from New York a few days ago with his coterie of trainers, has resumed his training for his Sept. 22 battle with Terry McGovern at Price's Hill, which is situated about five miles outside of this city. "Corbott" weighed exactly in pounds before he began his work. He has to reduce only to 127 pounds, the weight at which he is to battle. He is certain he will make the weight long before the time for weighing in arrives. "Corbett" did considerable road work yesterday, travelling eight miles, after which he boxed several rounds with his sparring partners, Willie Mack and Willie Fitzgerald.
